

College of Agriculture, Food and Environment
Office of Diversity Report
November 6, 2019

- Kendriana Price is the new Inclusion and Diversity Program Coordinator in the CAFE Office of Diversity. Her focus will be on K-12 pipeline programs, co-advising the UK MANRRS chapter, and fiscal coordinator for the office. We are elated to have Kendriana back in the system.
- The Kentucky Extension Diversity Award is now open. Extension staff please apply for the extension award. The individual award is $500.00 and the team award is $1,000.00. The nomination deadline is January 10th. Please find the document attached.
- Currently working with KY 4-H Youth Development on their inclusion series
- 4th Annual Intercultural Awareness Day took place October 22nd, Thriving in your multigenerational community. We had over 60 participants in attendance. We plan to continue the healthy conversation in the spring.
- The 8th Annual Jr. MANRRS Leadership Institute will take place November 15th and 16th. As of today, we have 24 youth that have been through the program that are now students at UK. This program is a great recruitment tool. Please contact Mia Farrell if you have any questions.

Future

- Coming Together for racial understanding train the trainer will take place in the spring, Date TBD
- Kentucky Extension Diversity and Inclusion Network will launch again in the spring. We plan to revitalize the resource group and make it beneficial for extension employees.